Our school initiatives are on track to meet or exceed our targets

During 2016, we focused on maximising the benefits of this funding for our students. After reviewing our 2016 Investing for Success agreement, it is clear that we are on track to meet or exceed our targeted student outcomes. We continue to implement our initiatives to ensure that every student succeeds.

Initiatives implemented include:

- Regular review of reading performance data in year level teams and leadership meetings to discuss and strategise teaching practices for reading to ensure student learning needs are being met in accordance with the data
- Implementation of tiered and focused reading intervention programs in the early years eg reading rockets, reading stars, reading champs and reading sparks
- Actioning of learning plans for all students who fall below NMS or at risk of not meeting benchmarks
- Implementation and embedding of whole school practice for reading comprehension
- Embedding of whole school approach to explicit teaching utilizing Anita Archer strategies for student engagement
- Embedding of Lyn Sharratt 14 parameters to school improvement with the implementation of a data wall and case management
- Built on teacher capability through focused coaching and professional development
